

TRAUMA & ATTACHMENT OFFER

It has been evidenced by research that maltreatment is implicated in the development of psychological, physiological and social difficulties. Children exposed to trauma are four times more likely to have SEN needs.

Trauma may cause difficulties with: memory, emotional response, communication, and executive functions. Importantly, 1 in 5 of these children exhibits signs of emotional and behavioural difficulties.

UNIVERSAL OFFER SUTTON SCHOOLS

OPEN NOW AND BOOKING FOR THE YEAR AHEAD!

Tailored Trauma and Attachment Training

- Development of Attachment
- Impact of Trauma on Brain Development and Learning
- Behavioral Indicators of Trauma
- Trauma Informed Strategies to Support Children in Educational Settings

Development of a Trauma and Attachment Champion in Each School

- Ongoing Trauma and Attachment Training
- Bespoke Sessions and Mentorship

FOR BOOKINGS AND FURTHER INFO
PLEASE CONTACT

SASHA-GAY BROWN
SASHA-GAY.BROWN@COGNUS.ORG.UK
TELEPHONE: 07534525707

